Piston of the Manila, Broken in Midocean, Repaired Through Young Officer's Skill.

VESSEL SIXTY DAYS OVERDUE.

Parents of the Naval Officer Live in St. Louis, and He Will Visit Them in a Few Days.

To H. J. Elson, Ensign in the United States Navy, whose parents and sister reside in St. Louis, credit is due that the gunboat Manila, one of Dewey's captures from the Spaniards, at present does not lie at the bottom of the Pacific Ocean with its crew of 197 men.

With the boat's high-power piston shattered, the vessel was helpless, 1,000 miles from San Francisco, 1,200 miles from Honolulu, and 1,300 miles from Bremerton, its destination. By working night and day, during gales and in calm weather, Mrs. E. Le Brochway of Sloux Falls, S. Louis C. Elson, moved to St. Louis. They and the young officer's sister, Mrs. W. A. Zeincker, reside at No. 4556 Washington boulevard.

At the battle of Manila, the gunboat Manila, then flying the Spanish flag, sur-

On April 15 of this year it left hamin for Bremerton, where it was to go out of commission for a time. After a difficult experience at sea, owing to a shorting of coal, the Manin reached Honolulu on May 11, departing from that place on May 25.

"Atlantic" Shoe Factory Resumes

Operations.

The disastrous fire of last Monday, which burned down the Riding Academy at Channing and Locust, did but slight damage to the exterior of the "Atlantic" factory building of the Friedman Brothers Shoe Company. This damage is being repaired now and the insurance having been adjusted, there will be no delay in filling orders going through the works. Had the fire been more disastrous the Friedman Brothers Shoe Company would have experienced very little difficulty in supplying their customers, as their large "Pacific" factory, corner Jefferson avenue and Madison street, is in full operation, and the down-town salesrooms are heavily stocked for fall shipments. Luckly, however, the fire suffered little inconvenience and all business is being attended to in the usual prompt manner. prompt manner.

GERMAN SAVINGS MAY DOUBLE ITS CAPITAL

Mechanics' National Bank Increases Dividends From Eight to Ten Per Cent a Year.

The German Savings Institution is contemplating doubling its capital stock, which is now $250,000. President John Wahl admitted yesterday that such a step is likely to be taken within a short time.

"We have not perfected the details for increasing the capital," said Mr. Wahl, "and I do not care to discuss the matter publicly. But I cannot deny the report current that the doubling of the capital is under consideration."

Richard Hospes, cashier, would not deny that the capital stock would be raised to $500,000. He simply stated that nothing was to be said about it at present.

President Wahl, in speaking of the con-templated increase, intimated that it was more than justified by the flourishing con-ditions. "Our institution," he said, "was never in better shape, and the volume of business far exceeds what any of us have expected. It is greater than ever before. While our capital at present is only $250.-000, we have a surplus of more than $500,-000, and it continues to increase."

In financial circles the steady rise in value of German Savings Institution shares has been accepted as significant. The last sale of stock reported on 'change was at $356 a share. Yesterday the bid was $415 and none was offered.

Mechanics' Increases Dividend.

A surprise was sprung upon stockholders of the Mechanics' National Bank yesterday by a notice that the dividends have been increased from 2 to 2½ per cent quarterly, or 10 instead of 1 per cent a year. The notice also advised that the books for the transfer of stock would close to-day. The next dividend payment is due July 1.

C. O. Austin, cashier, said there was no occasion for comment upon the suddetiness of the notice given of the increased dividend, and added that in the past the bank had never given surprise of increases. All stockholders whose names appear on the record to-day will be entitled to the quarterly dividend of 2½ per cent July 1. Mechanics' Increases Dividend.

the record to-day will be entitled to the quarterly dividend of 2½ per cont July 1.

Mr. Austin explained that the law requires the transsfer books to be closed five days before a stockholders' meeting, and since a meeting has been called for June 26, no transfers of stock can be entered after no transfers of stock can be entered after to-day. At the meeting the question of increasing the capital stock from $1,000,000 to $2,000,000 will be voted on. The increased dividend, the cashier stated, is fully warranted by the increased earnings of the Mechanics National, whose surplus has climbed from $500,000 to $650,000 tince the 30th of last April.

Surety Company Plans Delayed.

A hitch in the organization of the Continental Surety Company, proposed capital i.000,000, developed yesterday at a meeting of the Organization Committee, which was in session two hours at the office of Bryan & Christie, attorneys, in the Carleton building the election of a Board of Directors was to have taken place, but it was announced after the meeting that more time is required to complete certain details before the company assumes tangible form.

The members of the Organization Committee are Harvey L. Christie, C. O. Austin, Forest Ferguson, W. B. Versteeg, J. P. Bray, H. A. Diamant, C. C. Nicholis, Adolph Bear, Goodman King, Edward Westen and W. E. Berger. Subcommittees were selected from among these members to investigate and report upon various matters connected with the organization, the nature of which were not disclosed.

"All I can say," said Mr. Christie, "is that these subcommittees will report as soon as they can, and we hope to go ahead with completing the organization without delay."

The purpose of the proposed company is to do a surety business in St. Louis and this section that has heretofore gone to the East. Surety Company Plans Delayed.

RIGHT-OF-WAY ON THE LEVEE.

Question Raised Concerning Missouri Pacific's Privileges. City officials are investigating the right of the Missouri Pacific Railway Company to track privileges on the levee, between Carr route has been down and in use for at least thirty-three years and possibly for a longer time, but City Counselor Bates has been requested to say whether the right of-way privilege did not expire years ago. Apparently the ordinance extending the privileges did not specify a time when they should terminate, though old laws seem so indefinite that a safe conclusion cannot be reached without a thorough inquiry. However, nearly all railroad bills passed by the Common Council in the late sixties and early seventies contained clauses retaining to the municipality authority to alter, amend or repeal them at any time.

On July 15, 1882 a bill was passed allowing the North Missouri Railroad Company to lay tracks on First street, from North Market street to Howard street, thence between First street and the Levee to Lewis street, along Lewis street to Biddle street and along the Levee to Carr street. On March 2, 1889, a bill was passed to allow the Pacific Railroad, the St. Louis and Iron Mountain Railroad, and the North Missouri Railroad to connect there. This ordinance is thought to be the one authorizing the track in question. east thirty-three years and possibly for
